SAFETY ON SET

- > Follow directions from the AD department. First aid kit is at craft table.
- > If we are shooting with (artificial) rain -> please take this into account: dress accordingly & protect the equipment.
- > If you enter a location for the first time please look at where the emergency exits are. Make sure emergency services are able to pass through at all time
- > If we shoot near water: keep away from the quay at least 1 meter. If you need to step on the quay from a boat, be careful and ask for help if needed
- > Keep away from tripods and big equipment at least 1 meter.
- > Keep away from the horses; don't pet or agitate them; don't stand behind a horse.
- > If entrance is not permitted, stay away. No running on set. Closed shoes on set.
- > Location managers will brief security & crowd controllers in the morning; extra's coordinator will brief all extra's in the morning regarding safety on set
- > Emergency addresses & contact are available at all production assistants, production office and assistant directors
- > Protocol in case of a big emergency: Assistant director will call emergency services first and then Martijn and Christianne

SHORT RISK ASSESSMENT / REI

- > It's NOT allowed to gallop while riding horses.
- > It's NOT allowed to use real swords in fightscenes or choreographies.
- > Check the area you are going to work in before you start to see if it's safe.
- > If you feel a task you are asked to do is dangerous, you are in your right to refuse AT ALL TIMES.
- > If you see somebody do anything that forms a risk or is dangerous always inform production (Martijn Heijne/Christianne van Wijk) or the 1st AD (Gabriel Williams).
- > Olaf Grip is our BHVer (bedrijfshulpverlener) on set
- > If you are faced with an emergency first call 112, then inform the 1st AD and/or production (Martijn Heijne/Christianne van Wijk)
- > The complete RIE is available at the production office or via production (Martijn Heijne/Christianne van Wijk)
